IN FUTURO.

That with its wondrous fragrant exhalation The world of faith will dower.

That faintest reflex of a distant sun, That wakes an eager salutation from us 'Till nobler heights are won.

In which the romance of our lives is wrought The deeds that win imperishable glory Live scarcely in our thought.

Whate'er we do falls short of our intending; The structure backs the beauty we design; And tortured angels, to their home ascending, Depart, and leave no sign.

By all the doubts and trials that so vex us, By all the faults and failures that annoy, By all the strange delusions that perplex us, And yield no fruit of joy.

For us, ere yet we walk the streets of heaven, And dream of heaven no more.

The heart of earth has secrets yet withholden,
